In The Pink hosting Vernon singers

In The Pink hosting Vernon singers

Posted 2 years ago

Canmore's longtime acappella group In The Pink! is set to host the Vernon Community Singers.

The 135 member choir is making an appearance at the Oh Canada, EH? Theatre later this month, and will be the featured presentation, performing two sets, with a Valley Winds Choir performing a set as a preview of their upcoming Spring Concert. There will also be a set by In The Pink!

The Vernon Community Singers are a non-auditioned group of singers who have been together since 1993. Over the years they have performed concerts to raise money for many causes, community organizations and music student scholarships.

They have hosted In The Pink! in Vernon, and now it's Canmore's turn to play host to them.

The event will not be a fundraiser, but there will be donations accepted at the door to cover the expenses.

"It's just an excuse to get together and have fun," said Debbie Rosen, member of In The Pink! and director of the Valley Wind. "The end of the concert we're going to have a massed choir, so both of our choirs plus In The Pink! will be joining forces. I don't know where we're going to put everybody!"

In The Pink! is a six-member group that has been together for 22 years. They perform in Calgary as well as conferences and fundraisers in the community. In 2000 they went on a trip to Hishagikawa, Japan, Canmore's sister town, and represented the town signing at the Canadian Embassy in Tokyo.

The Vernon Community Singers' director Molly Body is the mother of former In The Pink! member, and now Vernon Community Singer member Heather McLennan. Rosen said that she is full of life, and the one that really gets the show going.

"The concert that we did with them was pretty amazing. They are a really dynamic group," she said.

McLennan will also be joining in with her former friends and sing with In The Pink! The show starts at 7:30 p.m. at the Oh Canada, EH? Theatre on Saturday, April 19. There are no tickets, just cash donations to cover costs of the show.
