The Oh Canada Eh? Dinner Theatre in Canmore is celebrating the eighth season of its signature family musical comedy Oh Canada Eh? which runs until Oct. 15.

"For the remainder of the month of June including Canada Day, we're offering a $20 discount on all tickets," says the company's artistic director JP Thibodeau who adds that "children always dine free when they are accompanied by an adult so this is a great entertainment package for families."

The musical revue features snippets from 75 songs, all of which were written by Canadians, though many were made famous by performers from beyond our borders.

There are also hilarious slapstick skits and audience participation is encouraged from the moment patrons are seated. The cast members help serve the sit-down, four-course meal.

"We've revamped the show with new choreography, new lighting and a new cast, which includes performers from Calgary, Vancouver, Toronto and Nova Scotia so we're showcasing a good cross-section of Canadian talent."

During the peak summer months of July, August and September, Oh Canada Eh? plays hosts to tours from Australia, Germany, the U.K. and France.

"The 1,100 performances of our revue has played to more than 160,000 people.

"We just had a large group from Paris. Only a few spoke English but they were a most appreciative audience because they got caught up in the spirit of the show.

"Their tour guide explained it was the equivalent of Albertans dropping in on the Moulin Rouge in Paris, only our performers keep their clothes on."

Tickets are available by calling 1-800-773-0004. Check out the website at www.ohcanadaeh.com for the June performance schedule.
