Posted By TS Owen/SummitUp

Updated 1 year ago

TS Owen/Canmore Leader's Cindy's (Erin Tancock) birthday at Oh Canada Eh's fall performance and her guardian angels Dee Dee (Andrea Morgan) and Marge (Kelly Holiff) are there to make sure it's a happy one.

Do You Want to Know a Secret? That sound you hear on Kananaskis Way in Canmore on the weekends isn't an earthquake or even an avalanche, it's feet stomping and hands clapping at the latest musical from Oh Canada Eh?, singing Doo Wah Diddy.

Filled with John Lennon's and Burt Bacharach's 60s harmonies, hoop skirts, bouffant dos, nerds and even a bubble curtain, SUDS is the story of Cindy's Birthday, complete with Guardian Angels and a touch of These Boots are Made for Walkin girl power. It's a romp through a decade famous for its singalong songs: There's Always Something there to Remind Me.

Producer JP Thibodeau said don't Walk on by. He allows customers to sing to their heart's content as the cast of four very talented twentysomethings bring the Birthday Party alive with their powerful voices. Bring the family and sing them the tunes you grew up with but if you Shout, you might "feel three taps on your shoulder to take it down a little," Thibodeau joked.

They have some ticket specials to help make the holidays My party, including gift tickets to the five course family meal and show. If you don't want to be Lonesome Tonight, call 609-0004 or go to ohcanadaeh.com and book reservations Thursday through Sunday.
